

PRESS RELEASE FROM STRUGEON R-V SCHOOL DISTRICT

Geoffrey Neill has been employed as the new superintendent for the Sturgeon R-V School District. Geoffrey is currently the High School Principal with the Crawford County R-II School District in Cuba, Missouri where he has been employed since July 2011. In addition to the Crawford County school system, he has also served as an adjunct instructor at Southwest Baptist University and taught Social Studies at North Platte County R-1 and Northeast Nodaway County R-V.

The school board is excited to welcome Geoffrey Neill to our district and community. Geoffrey's experience, personality and leadership make him a wonderful fit for our district. We look forward to Geoffrey continuing our tradition of excellence here at Sturgeon R-V.

Geoffrey would like to thank the Sturgeon R-V Board of Education for giving him the opportunity to be a part of the district. He and his family are looking forward to working with the community and school in the future. They are all very excited for this new chapter.

The Sturgeon R-V School District search for our superintendent was supported by the Missouri Association of Rural Education. A reception for faculty and staff to meet Geoffrey and his family is being planned. Details will be announced once they are finalized. Geoffrey begins formal employment on July 1, 2018.
